(54) Title: ORDER CHARGE SEPARATION AND ORDER-CHARGE TYPE SEPARATION

(57) Abstract

Apparatus or a device for producing order charge and/or order-charged matter, and/or a source of the same and/or apparatus and/or techniques for extracting the same. A device and/or apparatus for separating and/or concentrating and/or purifying the said order charge and/or order-charged matter, either collectively (e.g. mixture of charge types), and/or as partially and/or completely separated and/or purified individual charge types. Apparatus and/or a device for collecting and/or containing the order charge and/or order-charged matter. Apparatus and/or a device for outputting and/or applying the order charge and/or order-charged matter. A complete system of these apparatuses and devices together with input and output interfaces which produce, and/or separate, and/or capture, and/or store, and/or process, and/or treat the order charge and/or order-charged matter.
